1. Your story. Please share the story of your initiative.
   What challenges are you trying to address, how does it work, and what has it achieved?
   1.5 pages/7,000 characters (including spaces) max.

2. ICC and the 7 effectiveness principles.
   How does your initiative embody the 7 effectiveness principles of Integrated Community Care, and to what extent? You can find the effectiveness principles included in ICC4All Strategy. Although your initiative may not address all seven principles directly, all principles should be discussed, including those which may be indirectly addressed or which remain ambitions that your initiative is working towards. It is important to demonstrate to what extent a principle is guiding your activities. In a way, you are undertaking a self-assessment of your initiative by walking through the 7 principles (learnings, obstacles, challenges…). Please be as specific as possible in your answer.

2 pages/8,500 characters (including spaces) max.

3. Top two priority suggestions for ICC.
Integrated Community Care (ICC) faces many challenges and opportunities, but we would like to learn from your experience on those which you find most relevant and paramount to address and how you see the field moving forward. Starting with your initiative, what do you see as the two most critical priorities that the field of ICC should focus on over the next year?
1 page/5,500 characters (including spaces) max.

4. Your contribution to and expectations for the Changemakers Forum for ICC.
What knowledge, experience, and expertise would your initiative contribute to the Forum of Changemakers for ICC? What are your expectations and what would you like to get out of your participation?
Half-page, 2,500 characters (including spaces) max.

5. COVID-19 learnings.
How has the COVID-19 pandemic caused your project to adapt and/or think differently about your work? How does this feed into the way you envision your work in the field of ICC progressing in the future, beyond the pandemic?
1 page/5,500 characters (including spaces) max.

Applicants are invited to submit one document of their choice that relates to their initiative. This is not a requirement but it is encouraged. Please note that this document should not exceed 10 pages.

Please note: all applications must be submitted through the online portal to be considered. This document is available so that you can prepare your answers offline, if helpful.
